The road test is given by the motor carrier or a person it designates; a driver who is a motor carrier is tested by someone else (49 CFR 391.31(b)). The person who gives the test rates each operation and signs the form (391.31(d)). Give the driver a copy of the certificate; keep the original signed road test form and the original or a copy of the certificate in the driver qualification file (391.31(g)). A carrier may accept a valid CDL or a certificate issued within the preceding 3 years in place of the test (391.33).
